

David Zinn is a street artist who has been creating original artwork since 1987.

His temporary street drawings are composed entirely of chalk, charcoal and found objects, and are always improvised on location.

Most of his creatures appear on sidewalks in Michigan, but many have surfaced as far away as subway platforms in Manhattan, village squares in Sweden and street corners in Taiwan.