

Year 5 Art Summer Term- Lesson 2

Hi Year 5,

Hope everyone is well and managed to complete their Frida Kahlo research last week! If you didn't, go back to week 3 and complete it first so that you understand why she painted so many self-portraits. I am missing your cheeky faces, but am looking forward to seeing all of your wonderful art work when we get back to school!

This week, we are going to be looking at facial proportions before you sketch a pencil self-portrait of your own.

1. Watch this YouTube clip and draw the basic face as you watch, pausing from time to time while you draw along.

2. Next, using exactly the same process, sketch your own face in the same way. Remember, eyes should be half way down you head etc. You can sketch yourself using a mirror, your phone in selfie mode or from a photo. Add in as much detail as you can.

Have fun!
